THE Tiger
1956

FOREWORD

As the years pass, it is easy to forget the joyous and happy high school days. The excited freshmen; sophomores--"old hands" now; juniors--upper-classmen preparing and planning for the Junior-Senior Prom, and the happiest year of all---proud Seniors whom time could easily cast into oblivion. Therefore, it is with great pleasure that we, the seniors of Ninth Ave. High School, present this yearbook.

We hope two things will be evident in our publication, youth and a chance for improvement. Youth means there will be a tomorrow and improvement means advancement. When considered jointly, they mean a better tomorrow.

The Seniors sincerely hope this publication of the Tiger will find a favored spot in your book collection.

Dedication

For one who the past four years has been to us a mother, teacher, adviser and sincere friend, we, the senior class of 1956, are happy to leave a yearbook that we hope will harbor many pleasant memories for years to come of our sojourn together.

In appreciation of her sincere guidance, interest, and understanding of our needs, we find it an honor to dedicate this year's "Tiger" to our beloved and never-to-be-forgotten teacher, Mrs. W. O. James.

Miss Homecoming Queen

Amy Sue Russell, a senior, was crowned Queen of the Homecoming Game Oct. 23, 1955 at half time ceremonies. Amy Sue is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Russell and lives at 516 Harris St., Hendersonville, N. C. She has been an active student throughout her high school career.

She has been active in the N. H. A., Student Patrol, Glee Club, Cheerleader, Class Secretary, Library Club, English Club, School Band, and Student Council.

Ninth Avenue is proud of having had her enrolled and is expecting great things of her in the future.

Tigers Score 20-6 Win In Homecoming

The Ninth Avenue Tigers defeated Sylva 20-6 last night at the high school stadium in their annual homecoming game.

The Tigers scored the first six-pointer in the first quarter when Charles Harris intercepted a Sylva pass on the Tigers' 45 and ran the distance for the score. Robinson's try for the point was no good.

In the second quarter, Gardin scored from the ten yard line on an off tackle slant and the try for point made it 12-0 at half-time.

The final Tiger score came on a 45 yard run by Smith and again the try for point was good.

Sylva's only touchdown came all directions at once.

Ninth Avenue Tigers Score Fourth Win

The Ninth Avenue Tigers won their fourth straight game of the season last night at the high school stadium with a 15-0 victory over Bell Street High School of Clinton, S. C.

The Tigers scored in three of four periods. The touchdown came in the first quarter on the 25 yard pass from quarterback Charlie Harris to Gardin. The try for point was good.

The second period was scoreless but the Tigers scored another tally in the third quarter on a ten-yard run by Harris.

A safety was scored in the fourth quarter when Parks intercepted the halfback in the end zone.

During the halftime break, Harris received the outstanding player award for his performance in last week's game against Sylva.

SPORT—TIGERS—DEFEAT

The Ninth Avenue Tigers continued their winning ways last night with a 12-6 victory over Carver high of Spindale on a rain-soaked field.

The Tigers are now undefeated in nine straight games with seven being carried over from last year.

The Tigers first score came when Gardin intercepted a Spindale pass in the opening minutes of the game and rated 40 yards to the end zone for a touchdown.

The try for point was good.

In the second quarter, Smith passed to Smith for 40 yards and he raced the distance for the winning score.

In the third quarter, Harris intercepted the halfback in the end zone.

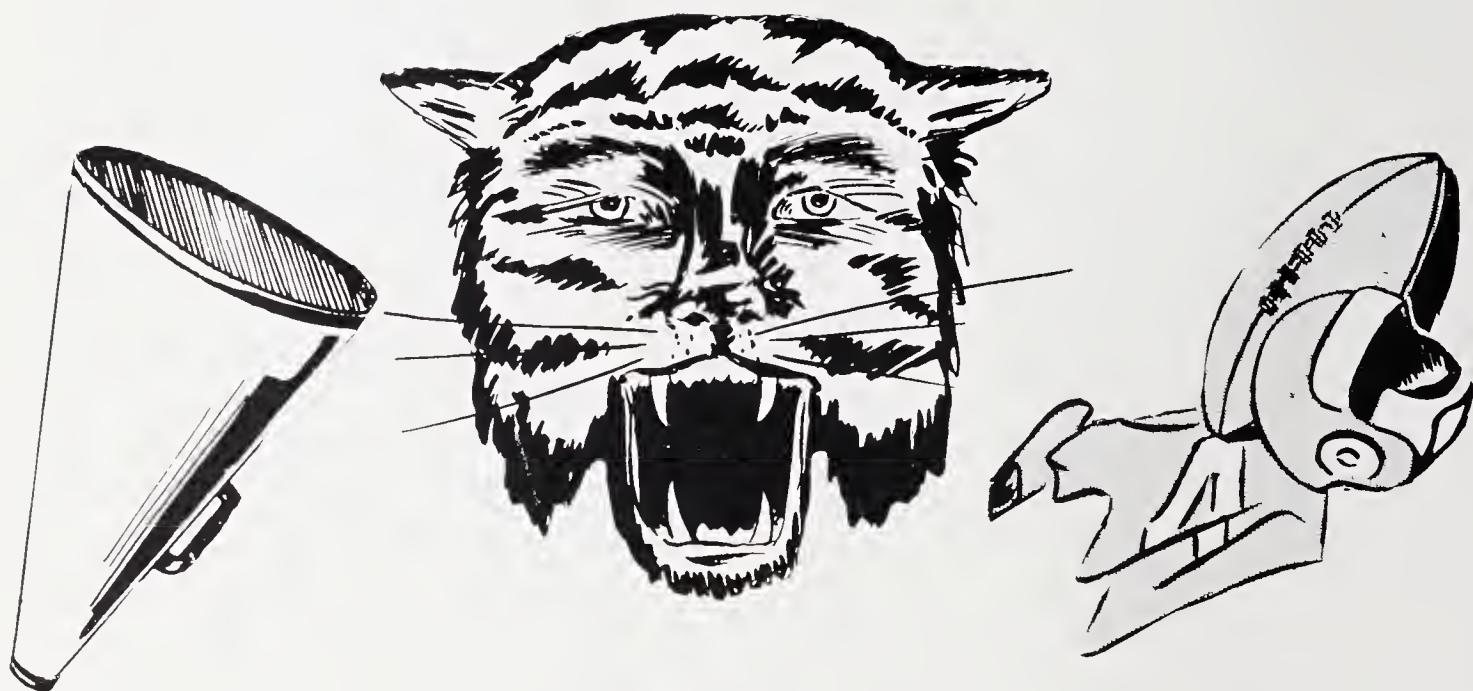

The Tigers will enter a Homecoming game in the high school stadium.

Tigers Defeat Wellford In Opening Game

The Ninth Avenue Tigers opened their 1955 grid season with a 20-0 win over Wellford, S. C., last night at the high school stadium.

The Tigers pushed across two touchdowns in the first half. The first came on a 10-yard run by Harris.

Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina

County of Henderson

We, the Senior Class of 1956 of Ninth Avenue High School, state of North Carolina, county of Henderson, city of Hendersonville, being of sound mind and body but aware of the brevity of our existence here and having certain real and imaginary effects of which we wish to dispose, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

Article I. To our parents we leave our sincere gratitude for the many sacrifices they so generously made that we might complete this first journey in our quest for knowledge and for the love, patience, and understanding shown as we journeyed on this four year voyage.

Article II. To our Faculty, the mediums of knowledge, we leave our best wishes and our prayers in their guidance of those who follow us, also our hope that they have less worry with next year's seniors than they had with us.

Article III. To the proud Juniors who will take our places, we will first, the privileges of Seniors, the characteristics and responsibilities of same and may they at all times be upon their senioratic dignity and work in unity.

Article IV. To our young friends, the Freshmen and Sophomores, the admonition to study hard and keep up with their work in order to become Seniors in and on time.

Article V. We do in kind remembrance make and bequeath the following personal donations:

To Ann McDaniel, Rosa Lee Arnold leaves her soprano voice.

To Shirley Mooney, Dora Cooley leaves her legs and to Johnnie Mae Blocker, her ability to play Basketball.

To Jeanette Norman, Lena Owens leaves her ability to speak in a low tone of voice.

To James Glaze, Ulysses C. Mills leaves his great artistic ability.

To Sarah Bell Young, Harvetta Lewis leaves her height.

To Rader Ledbetter, Mildred Hopper leaves her size and figure.

To Mary Bell Darity, Shirley Logan leaves her seat on "OLD 43."

To Alice Glaze, Juanita Hutchison leaves her position as president of the Student Council.

To Barbara Ann Moss, Fair Lee Owens leaves her dignity and her appetite to Elizabeth Jackson.

To Marlene Peak, Billie Mitchum leaves her aggressiveness.

To Barbara Logan, Myrnice Smith leaves her "walk."

To Guy Payne, Orange Mooney leaves his shoulders.

To George Bruster, James Outlaw leaves his "Gift of Gab."

To Lindsey Blocker, David Ward leaves his natty dressing.

To Cleo Waters, Walter Mills leaves his cooperativeness and sincerity.

To Robert Hall, Mack Gardin leaves his position as football captain.

To Ed Cash, Norris Russell leaves his quietness.

To Connie Williams, Charles Harris leaves his No. 4 Jersey.

To Marlene Peak, Amy Russell leaves her position as store keeper.

To Thomas Hutchison, Robert Smith leaves his seriousness.

To James Arthur Hefner, William Smith leaves his physique.

If there be any property of ours that we have not bequeathed, we leave it for our executors to use as they see fit.

Signed on this twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty six at Ninth Avenue High School, Hendersonville, North Carolina.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Senior Class and Adviser are sincerely grateful to all who have assisted the yearbook Staff in helping us to meet the dead-line, etc. Orchids are in order for Miss E. Stephens who helped us so unselfishly and tirelessly. Without her---we simply could not have made it. Posies are due Walter Mills, David Ward, Robert Smith, William Smith, Rosa Arnold, Bonnie Rhodes and Billie Mitchum for their strenuous work of securing Ads--which was not seat work, but feet work and it wasn't easy. James Outlaw is responsible for all the typing and we thank him, also Ulysses Mills for his art.

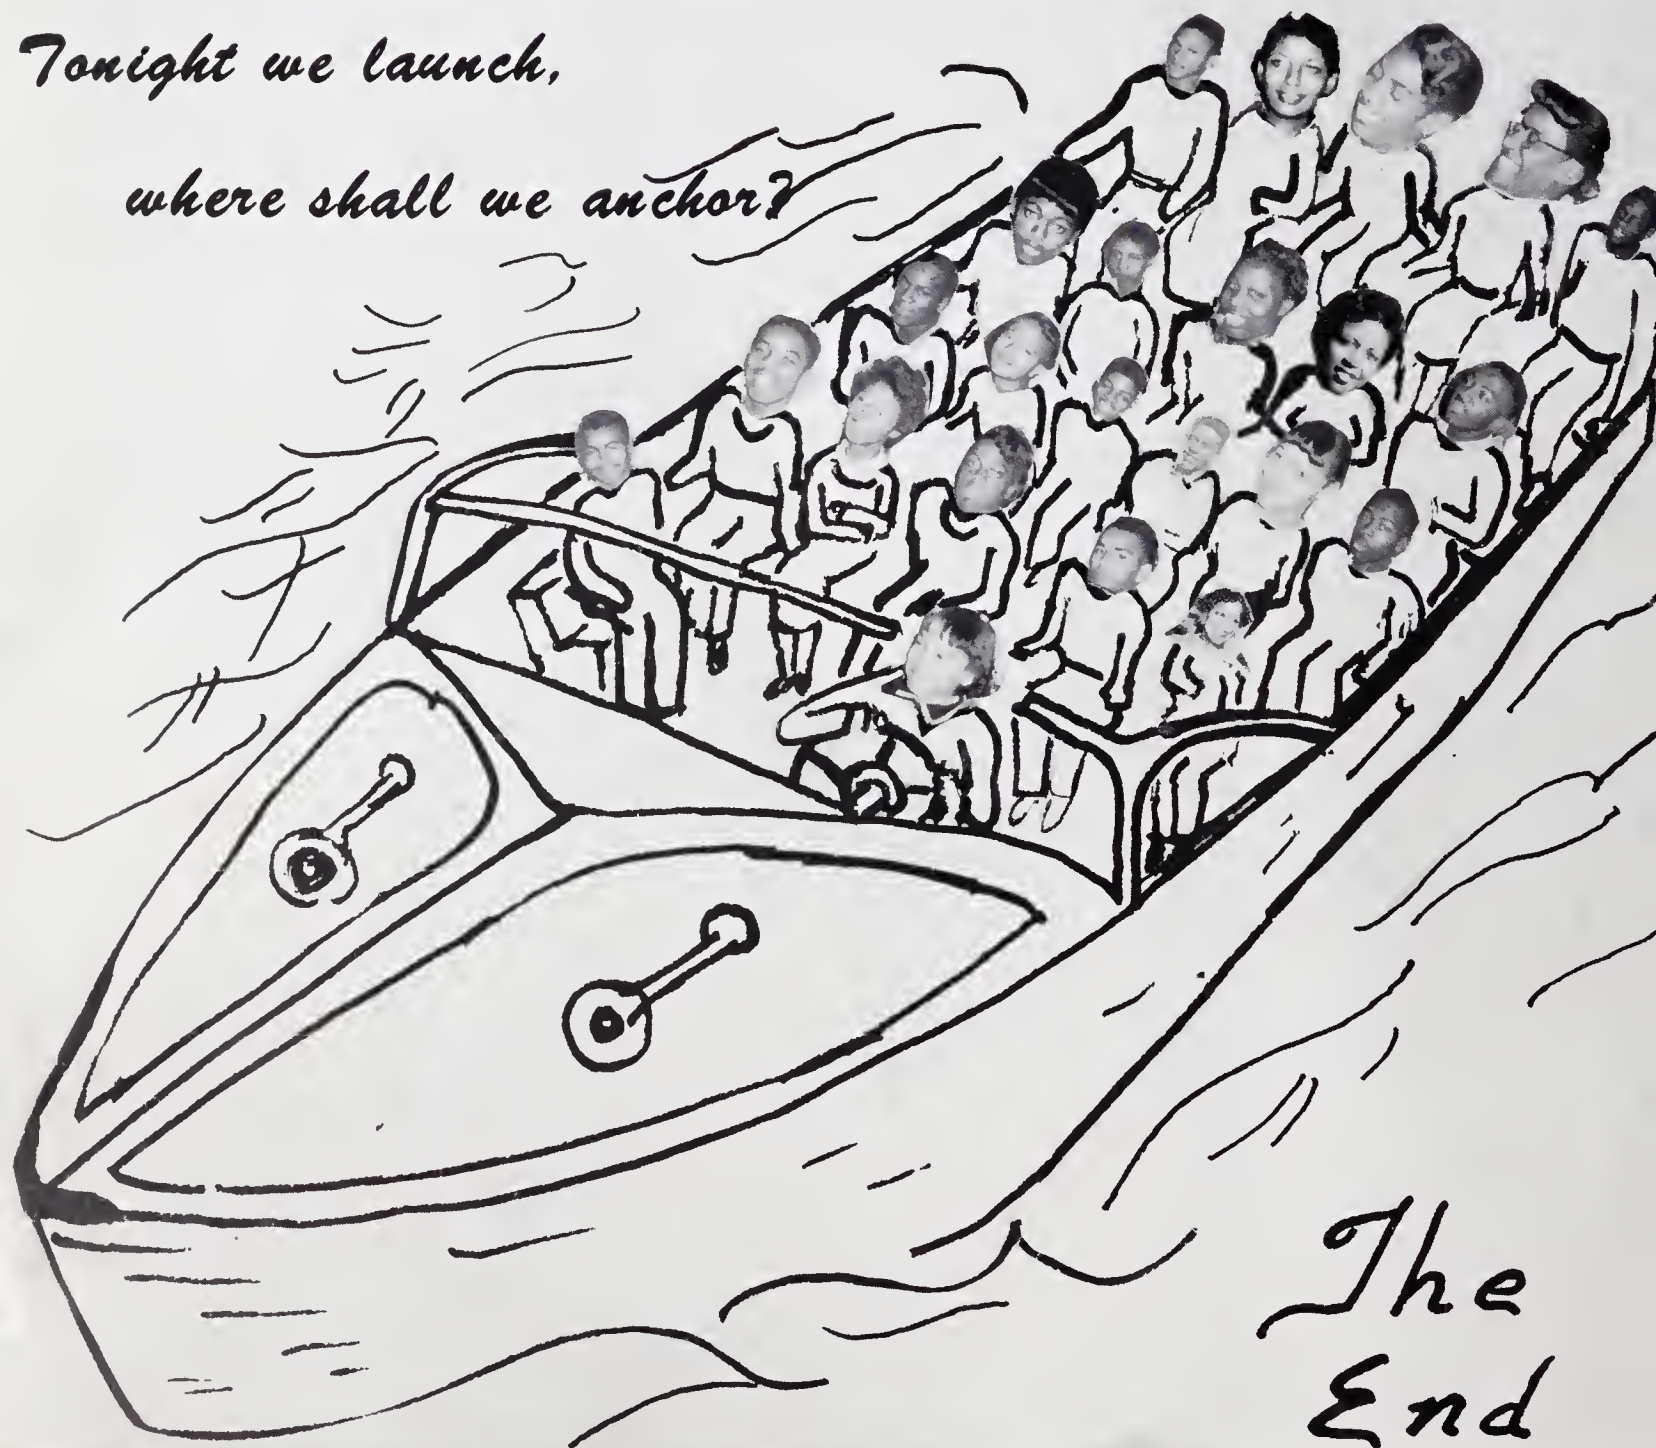

We are doubly grateful to the merchants of the city and patrons of the school who gave so generously in assisting us with the financial side of yearbook production.

To the faculty, student body, and student organizations, we are most appreciative of their invaluable spirit of cooperation.

For those who supported us in ways not mentioned by name or otherwise, we are nonetheless appreciative. In short, we take this time to thank everyone for every possible aid and everything.

Tonight we launch,

where shall we anchor?
